

Wellington's Proposed District Plan

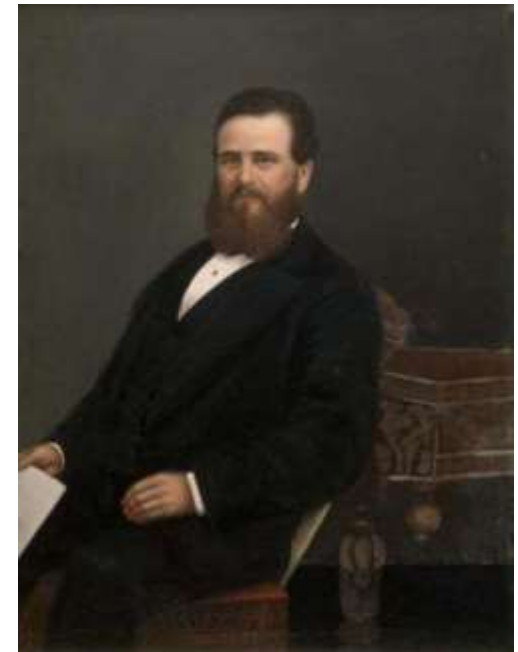

Heritage v Character

- Historic heritage nature of 'character' is acknowledged in the methodology of the Boffa Miskell Pre-1930 Character Area Review
- Heritage involves the historical layers of people, events and social movements
- We know many of these for houses not even included in Character Precincts
- Therefore most of Mount Victoria should be considered Heritage Area

Heritage Examples

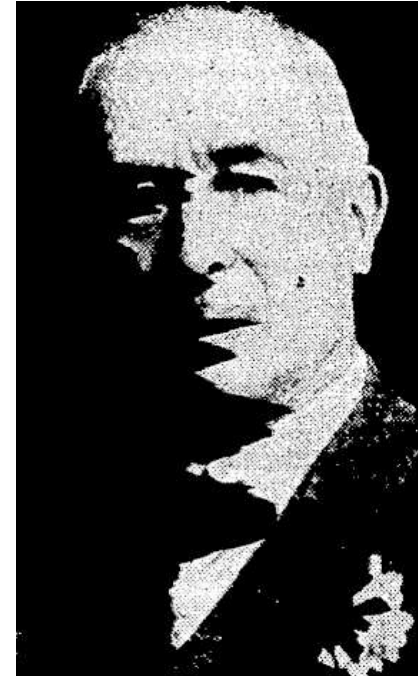

(not even in Character Precincts)

23 Stafford Street, built by and home to Harbour Pilot Holmes and his wife for 31 years

Heritage Examples

(not even in Character Precincts)

4 Hawker Street, home to Arthur Dixon from at least 1895 until 1929, two-storey frontage added 1898, designed by well-known architect William Crichton.
Dixon in woollen goods trade, top sailor of racing yachts, member of Victoria Bowling Club .

...

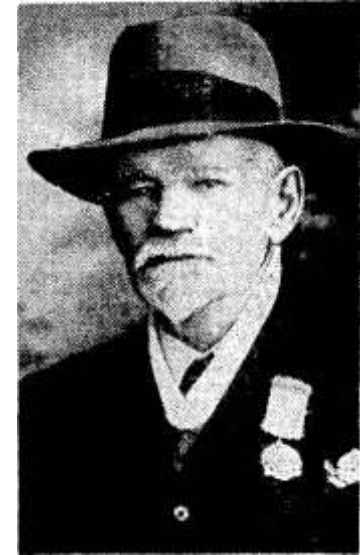

Mount Victoria North Townscape

Tutchen Avenue/Porritt Avenue Heritage Area

Tutchen Avenue/Porritt Avenue Heritage Area

Pilot boat crew at Worser Bay, c.1883, including Bob Shilling. Alexander Turnbull Library 1/2-140314-G

New Claremont Grove Heritage Area

Legal Precedent

- Basin Bridge and High Court appeal decisions
- Historic heritage status of lower Ellice Street and Paterson Street

Paterson Street

151 Brougham (cnr Paterson)

3 Paterson

5 Paterson

7 Paterson

9 Paterson

11 Paterson

Paterson Street

17 Paterson

19 Paterson

142 Austin (cnr Paterson)

Lower Ellice Street

Transition zone

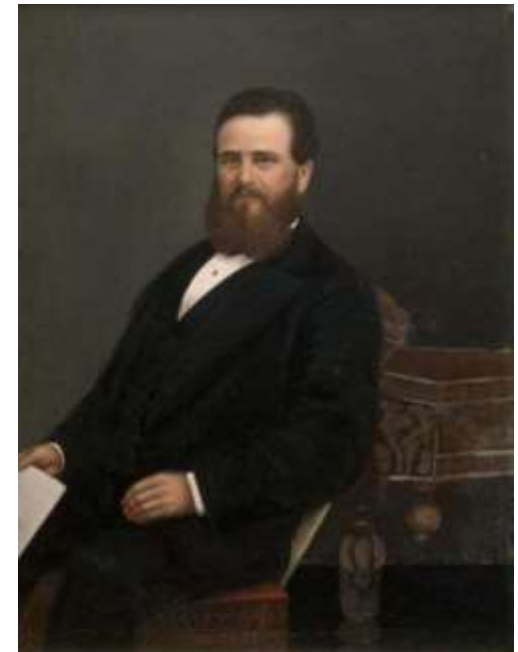

- 'Buffer' required between Character Precincts/Northern Mt Victoria Townscape Precinct and 21m or 28.5m
- Not doing so will de-value these and even risk ultimate destruction

Moir Street

Heritage building additions

(not even in Character Precincts)

23 Stafford Street, built by and home to Harbour Pilot Holmes and his wife for 31 years

Heritage building additions

(not even in Character Precincts)

7 Paterson Street, Waring Taylor's house, built 1869

Heritage structures – Mt Vic Tunnel

Demolition-by-neglect Case Study – 71 Hawker Street

2011

Paterson (l), Martin & Hunter on Town Hall site, with Clerk of Works, c.1903

2023